

Catholics resonate to a sense of community, to caring for others because we are all part of God's family, and to working for justice. These fundamental Catholic values drive Joe Biden's efforts to help the American family and heal the divisions in our country, and they underscore his priorities to act if elected President.

Joe Biden Will Fight Covid-19 & Care For Its Victims

Joe Biden's top priority is fighting the Covid-19 pandemic that has cost Americans nearly 200,000 loved ones. This is personal to Joe because he knows what it means to lose close family members.

- Joe will listen to scientists doing research to combat the pandemic.
- Joe will develop a clear and comprehensive national response to the pandemic, including increased testing and tracing.
- Joe will guarantee there is sufficient personal protective equipment for everyone, but especially hospital and health care workers.
- Joe will ensure pandemic survivors don't lose their health insurance.
- Joe will push for fair wages to essential workers like those in nursing homes, public services, grocery stores, and day-care providers.

Don't be distracted by today's news cycle. Joe Biden's plan to mitigate and then conquer Covid-19 will help all Americans, enable our economy to restart, and restore the soul of the nation.
